Ombudsmen Make Way for Therapy Pup to Visit Residents

Southwest Council Ombudsmen Jerry and Joy Spivak with Parker the poodle and his owner Pearl Struminger.

Ombudsmen Joy and Jerry helped arrange for Parker the therapy dog to visit a memory care unit in a facility. Parker visited a resident who was nonverbal and rarely socialized. After meeting Parker, the resident began opening up and socializing with others to tell them about the visit from this sweet pup. This great response prompted the facility activity director to schedule a regular times for Parker to visit nonverbal residents. Thank you Joy and Jerry, and a special thanks to Pearl and Parker!

ATTA-BOYS!
Special Thanks to Ombudsman Volunteers!

“Jim Lynch, Vice Chair of West Central Council, continues to take on some of the most challenging cases. A recent case turned into a systemic issue with 7 total complainants. Resolutions were difficult to come to as other agencies became involved and new facility administration lacked understanding of the Ombudsman Program. Jim pressed on with over 20 hours and 7 visits to the facility. In the end, Jim effectively advocated for residents, and the administration took action. Great job, Jim!”

“Terri Balzer, West Central Certified Ombudsman, consistently does excellent work. In a recent case, Terri was able to negotiate for a resident to receive reimbursement for missing items, as well as a locking wardrobe to protect the resident’s belongings in the future. Terri devoted 4 visits to resolving this issue. Great job Terri!”
